WALLACE MEMORIAL CEMETERY

Nestled in the Appalachian Mountains of West Virginia in the heart of the Greenbrier Valley, Wallace Memorial Cemetery is a peaceful resting place for any loved one who has passed away. Wallace Memorial Cemetery is a family owned and operated corporation that was established in 1955 by the Wallace family.

Wallace Memorial Cemetery is located just 13 miles west of Lewisburg, WV on Interstate 64 at the Sam Black Church Exit or 16 miles east of Rainelle, WV on Rt. 60.

Wallace Memorial Cemetery has been regarded as one of the prettiest and best maintained cemeteries in the region. Wallace Memorial Cemetery offers a large selection of gravesites, mausoleum crypts and cremation niches that will fit the needs of any family. Approximately 11,000 gravesites and 1,500 mausoleum crypts have been purchased by families of loved ones. Wallace Memorial Cemetery offers at-need and pre-need sales of graves, mausoleum crypts, cremation niches and monuments that allow families to purchase items in advance with less worry at time of death.

Wallace Memorial Cemetery is a perpetual care cemetery, which means that a percentage of grave, crypt, and niche sales are put in a fund to assure future funds are available for the continual maintenance of the cemetery.

GRAVESITES

Wallace Memorial Cemetery offers many different areas to choose the perfect gravesite for any loved one. Some areas allow upright granite monuments, where as other areas allow for ground level granite or bronze markers. One area only allows ground level bronze markers.

Each area of the cemetery is priced differently. Areas range in price from *$900.00 to *$1,050.00. Call for pricing of a particular section.
